Virtual Santa Barbara Housing Conference

The 6th Annual Santa Barbara Housing Conference, originally scheduled to take place in May, had to be postponed and reimaged due to the pandemic. On Friday, October 2nd, the Conference will go virtual from 8:30am to 2:30pm via Zoom. John Campanella will be honored with the Michael Towbes Excellence in Workforce Housing Award.

"The CHC board and Housing Conference committee continues to work hard on this year's conference, which will continue with the same great programming and speakers but in a vibrant virtual format," shared Board President Olivia Marr. Conference co-chairs are attorney Christopher Guillen and Craig Minus, CHC Executive Director.

Santa Barbara County's only housing conference, presented by the nonprofit organization Coastal Housing Coalition, will feature keynote speaker Daniel Walters, an expert on California politics and a featured columnist at www.calmatters.org as well as many California newspapers, educational workshops, and panel discussions on timely housing topics and issues. Gimme Shelter podcasters Liam Dillon and Matt Levin will also present.
