Part of UCSB Arts & Lecture's Thematic Learning Initiative, Charting a World Without Borders, A Discussion with Pico Iyer will take place Friday, March 15th from 4 to 5pm at the Santa Barbara Library. In this moderated session, writer Pico Iyer will talk about the place of literature in a divided world. According to Iyer, "At this time when so many of us are really concerned about wars and travel bans, literature is more indispensable than ever, precisely because the imagination is no respecter of boundaries or fences." The talk will be followed by audience questions and discussion. To reserve your spot call 805-564-5621 or email JLemberger@SantaBarbaraCA.gov. Pre-Registration will reserve your seat until ten minutes prior to the event.
